REQUEST FOR REVIEW

COMMITMENT ADJUSTMENT LETTER:	Dated - January 31, 2003
FUNDING YEAR:	1999 - 2000
FORM 471 APPLICATION NUMBER:	147340

To Whom It May Concern:

The Administrator's Decision on Appeal stated that their review of our appeal determined that the applicant has not met their obligation for their non-discounted portion of the funding commitment, which is an obvious violation of program rules.

However, the school has recently stated that they will pay their non-discounted portion to the service provider.

Understanding that the school would pay their non-discounted portion to the service provider, thereby fulfilling their obligation, the Administrator's Decision on Appeal further stated that the applicant received a letter from the service provider, which stated that the applicant did not have to pay their non-discounted portion to the service provider. By virtue of possessing this letter, the Administrator has taken the position that any payment from the applicant should be stricken from consideration, and thereby disregarded as fulfillment of their obligation.

The service provider stated that they did not advise the school that they would not be responsible for their non-discounted portion. The Administrator contends that the letter contains the signature of the President, but the letter does not contain the President's signature.

Another issue is; the conclusion the Administrator made on whether the letter, supposedly written by the service provider, is an actual letter from the service provider, or a letter initiated by one of the service providers competitors, to discredit them.

The fact that the school will pay their non-discounted portion reverses the violation contention of the program rules. This also converts the assumption that the service provider advised the school they would not be responsible for their non-discounted portion and the school relied upon that assumption.

MasterMind Internet Services, Inc. (Service Provider) requests that the 'Commitment Adjustment Letter' for Form 471 Application Number: 152620 be purged, upon proof of applicant's payment of their non-discounted portion.

Sincerely,

Ronald W. Gates
